

Mohr's Rosinweed

Silphium mohrii

Grows 4-5 feet tall with a narrow footprint. Full sun. Highly deer resistant. Very drought tolerant once established.

A favorite native perennial with buttery yellow blooms and fuzzy, silvery foliage. Blooms all season to the delight of scores of native bees. The seed heads are attractive and provide seed for songbirds.

